

Result 2: Improve the Quality and Productivity of the Workforce

Tollgate Two Presentation
POG Guidance Team Meeting
May 25, 2004

Workforce Results Team

- Jamila Thomas-Roberts (lead), Governor's Policy Office
- Marc Baldwin, Employment Security Department
- Ellen O'Brien Saunders/Bryan Wilson, Workforce Training & Education Coordinating Board
- Paul Trause, Department of Labor and Industries
- Doug Vaughn, Office of Financial Management
- Jill Wakefield, South Seattle Community College
- Jan Yoshiwara, State Board for Community and Technical Colleges
- Andrea Archer (facilitator), Department of Licensing
- Deborah Feinstein (team informational support), OFM
- Irv Lefberg (research consultant), OFM

Vision

A workforce development system that offers every Washingtonian access to high quality academic and occupational skills education throughout his or her lifetime, effective help to find work or training when unemployed, and the personalized assistance to make progress in the labor market.

Values/Guiding Principles

- Seek economic equity
- Encourage partnerships
- Ensure that customer requirements and desires drive policy, goals, and service strategies
- Identify and promote best practices

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Strategies for Preparing the Workforce

Questions?

- Coordination between results teams prior to tollgate 3
  - K-12
  - Higher Ed
  - Economic Vitality
  - Vulnerable Adults